Footnotes:

- <sup>1/</sup> Period Covered: The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- <sup>2/</sup> Extended Deadline: Because the January 31, 2010 filing deadline falls on Sunday, the deadline is extended to February 1, 2010.
- <sup>3/</sup> Unpaid Officeholders: Elected officers whose salaries are less than $200 per month and judges are not required to file semi-annual statements if no contributions were received or expenditures made during the period.
- <sup>4/</sup> Prohibition on Candidate Independent Expenditures: A controlled committee may not make independent expenditures to support or oppose candidates and may not contribute to another committee for the purpose of making independent expenditures to support or oppose other candidates.

held in 2009. Contact the FPPC for specific requirements.

- Contribution Limits: Contributions to state candidates and to committees that make contributions to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Refer to the contribution limits chart on the FPPC website. Contact local jurisdictions for information on local restrictions, if any.

Disclosure manuals and other information on campaign reporting can be found on the FPPC website (www.fppc.ca.gov). Be sure to check the website for up-to-date information.

Additional Notes:

- Late Statements: Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- Additional Filing Requirements: A candidate not being voted on during 2009 may be required to file additional statements if the candidate makes contributions totaling $10,000 or more to elected state officeholders during 2009 or makes contributions totaling $10,000 or more in connection with an election
